

A UNESCO World Heritage Site, built about 2500 BC.

Designated in 1986 along with Avebury Henge which is about 10 miles away.

It is in the middle of the most dense complex of Neolithic and Bronze Age monuments in England, including several hundred burial grounds.

<http://www.english-heritage.org.uk/daysout/properties/stonehenge/>

<http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Stonehenge>